

RDP Graduate Student Testimonial

After only two years as a graduate student with the Religion and Diversity Project, I realized that now when I am doing research, I can often go down the reference list of key scholarly publications in my field and say that I have had the pleasure of meeting the authors either at a Religion and Diversity Project event or at an academic conference. I think I can now count at least a dozen such scholars who have significantly influenced my PhD experience (Christine Cusack, Graduate Student Member).
