

Geir Skeie

---

Geir Skeie is a Full Professor at Stockholm University and University of Stavanger. Skeie's research has focused primarily on religious education with both empirical and theoretical contributions. He has had a leading role in several national and international research projects investigating religion and education. His publications include "Plurality and Pluralism in Religious Education," in International Handbook of the Religious, Moral and Spiritual Dimensions in Education. Part One (Springer, 2006); "Religion and education in Norway," in Religion and Education in Europe. Developments, Contexts and Debates. Religious Diversity and Education in Europe 3 (Waxmann, 2007); "Does Religion Matter to Young People in Norwegian Schools?," co-authored with Marie von der Lippe in Teenagers' Perspectives on the Role of Religion in their Lives, Schools and Societies. A European Quantitative Study (Waxmann, 2009); "Education between formation and knowledge – a discussion based on recent English and Nordic research in religious education" Utbildning och lärande vol 6 no 2 2012, pp 80-95, A Contextual Turn in Research on Religion and Education; and Geir Skeie, Judith Everington, Ina ter Avest, Siebren Miedema (Eds.): Exploring Context in Religious Education research. Empirical, Methodological and Theoretical Perspectives (Waxmann, 2013).